Bbbbbbb Numb. 3787.

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, December 2. 1713.

Rome, November 4.

THE Abbot del Maro, Agent of the King of Sicily, having received Letters from that Prince, by which he notified to the Pope his Arrival at Palermo, had Audience of his Holineſs ſome Days ago, and preſented them to him. The Pope anſwered viva voce in very obliging Terms, but has not yet given any Anſwer in Writing. All Means are uſed to hinder the ſpreading of the Mortality among the Cattle, which does not diminiſh; and by Information taken it appears, that above 11000 Beeves or Cows have died ſince it began. The Number of their Carcaſſes which have been thrown into the Tiber, ſeveral of which ſtuck by the Banks by reaſon of the great Waters increaſed by the continual Rains, has given Occaſion for iſſuing an Order for burying them all, on rigorous Penalties, to prevent the Air being infected, which might produce worſe Conſequences. It is reported that the Germans have abandoned the three Forts near Commacchio, which they were poſſeſſed of, particularly that of Magna Vacca; and it is ſaid to be becauſe the Garriſon of Commacchio is extremely diminiſhed by Sickneſs. The Prince of Sonnino and the Duke de Mattalone have paſt here in their Way to Vienna, whither they are ſent for to give an Account of their Conduct.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Dec. 8.

Leghorn, Nov. 18. Here is arrived the Engliſh Ship Succeſs from Barcelona, in eight Days. The Captain reports, that three Privateers of Majorca have taken 2 French Ship laden with Salt-fiſh, and a Tartan of the ſame Nation, coming from Barbary. Another Veſſel arrived from Catalonia has brought an Account, that a Corſair of Algiers which attempted to make a Deſcent at Iyica, was taken by the People of that Iſland; that Barcelona is provided with a ſtrong Garriſon, and that they have plenty of all things, except Wine. The Report that has been divulged in foreign Parts of our great Duke's being Sick, is falſe; for he enjoys perfect Health, as does alſo the great Prince his Son; and as to the Rumours which have been ſpread, perhaps maliciouſly, of a Will made by his Royal Highneſs, they are wholly groundleſs.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated December 7.

Vienna, Nov. 22. We have a Report that the French Marſhal de Theſſe is at Florence, tranſacting ſomething for the King his Maſter with the Great Duke of Tuſcany, probably to the Prejudice of our Court: And as moſt of the Princes of Italy, among them the Pope and the Duke of Savoy, have little Kindneſs for us, 'twill be no Wonder if he gain his Point. The Cardinal de Schrottenbach ſet out Yeſterday for Rome; and aſſoon as the Diſputes between the Pope and the Vicetroy of Naples are accommodated, the Count de Gallas will follow him; which is reckoned highly neceſſary, not only becauſe at this time Affairs of great Importance are in Agitation at the Court of Rome, but becauſe 'tis known the Pope is in ſo ill a State of Health that he is not like to live long.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 5.

Paris, Nov. 27. The Rumour is great in this City, that Prince Eugene of Savoy and the Marſhal de Villars have full Powers from their Principals to draw up a Plan of Peace between the two Crowns and the Emperour and Empire; and there ſeeming to be great Difficulties to be ſurmounted, with reſpect among other things to the Pretenſions of the Houſe of Auſtria in Italy, 'tis talked they will be referred to the Pope's Mediation, that the Cardinals Gualtieri and Piazza have been nominated for this Purpoſe by our Court and by that of Rome, and that the Emperour is to name a third.

From the Paris Letter, dated Dec. 1.

Paris, Dec. 1. The Advices from Fribourg of the 23d paſt tell us, that all the Talk there was of Peace, and that the Marſhal de Villars was going to Raſtad to treat of it with Prince Eugene. The Marſhal having ſuperiour Forces, pretends to maintain the King's Intereſts with a high Hand, and if the Accomodation be not concluded in a little time to his Majeſty's Satisfaction, he will purſue his Conqueſts in the Empire without Reſpite.

From the Paris Letter, dated Dec. 4.

Paris, Dec. 4. Letters from the Lampourdan of the 17th of November relate, that the Barcelonets had made a Sally to the Number of 3 or 4000 Men, on the Lines which the Duke de Popoli is making before that Town, and at firſt made the King's Troops which ſupported the Workmen give Ground; but the Piquets haſtening thither, the Rebels were repulſed and put into Diſorder, with the Loſs of 4 or 500 Men killed or wounded and a like Number taken Priſoners; with no more Loſs of the King's Troops than of 1 Lieutenant killed and 25 or 30 Men killed or wounded. The Governour of the Caſtle of Cardona has asked Permiſſion to march out of it and go to Barcelona, but 'tis refuſed, it being deſigned to make him and his Garriſon Priſoners of War. Letters from Fribourg of the 25th adviſe that the Marſhal de Villars ſet out the 24th for Raſtad, where the firſt Conference with Prince Eugene was to be held the next Day. The Marſhal flatters himſelf that they ſhall not part without concluding a Peace advantagious to France, and propoſes not to let the Negociation be long depending. He had left Order with the Count du Bourg to ſend the Cavalry into Winter Quarters in the Provinces on the Confines of France by degrees, as the Forrage, of which there were great Stores in our Camp, is conſumed. The Troops of the King's Houſhold began to file off the 20th to return hither. The Letters from Madrid of the 20th afford nothing particular, more than that the Lines of Circumvallation before Barcelona were finiſhed, and that the Squadron from Cadix was arrived on the Coaſts of the Mediterranean, to take on board Proviſions and ſome Troops.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 8.

Hamburg, Dec. 1. Some Advices from Sweden tell us, that there is a great Diviſion between the antient and latter Nobility of Sweden; that the firſt have declared for the Princeſs Ulrica, in caſe the King of Sweden ſhould happen to die abſent from his own Dominions; but that the others are for Charles Frederick of Holſtein Son of the deceaſed Princeſs of Sweden, who was eldeſt Siſter of the Princeſs Ulrica; and that 'twas expected there will be great Debates about ſettling the Succeſſion, cession in the general Diet of the States of the Kingdom, which is to be in a short time.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 5.

Brussels, Nov. 30. Her Britannick Majesty's Minister has presented a Memorial to our Regency, wherein pursuant to his Orders from the Queen his Mistress, he desires them not to give any Reception or Harbour to the Pretender in these Countries: Whereupon circular Letters to that effect are dispatched to all the Towns, even to the Magistates of Ypres, &c.

This is to give Notice, That the Royal Chymical Wash-Balls for the Hands and Face, are removed from Mr. Lambert's the Glovers, to prevent the Publick's being imposed on by Counterfeits, and are now sold only at Mr. Allcroft's Toyshop at the Blue-Coat-Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and at Mrs. Giles's, Milliner, near Hercules-Pillars Alley by the Temple. They have above these 8 Years been largely experienc'd and highly commended by all that use them, and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be paralleled by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetick, &c. they being indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ring-worms, Morphew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, and keeping it of a lasting and extream Whiteness. They soften other red or rough Hands, and are admirable in Shaving the Head, for they not only give a more exquisite Purpose to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerves as to prevent Catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury; and are sold only by Mr. Allcroft, and Mrs Giles, as above, price 1 s. each, and no where else in London by Retale, therefore beware of Counterfeits, which are not only ineffectual but may also prove dangerous.

LONDON: Printed by Sam. Buckley, at the Dolphin in Little-Britain; and Sold by Ferd. Burleigh, Jun. in London-House-Yard, at the West-End of St. Paul's.
